Enforcement of Retaliation Appeals.

(1) A person, firm, or corporation aggrieved by a citation and notice of assessment or a determination of compliance may, within thirty days after the date of such decision, submit a request for reconsideration to the department setting forth the grounds for seeking such reconsideration, or submit an appeal to the director pursuant to the procedures outlined in subsection (4) of this section. If the department receives a timely request for reconsideration, the department will either accept the request or treat the request as a notice of appeal.

(2) If a request for reconsideration is accepted, the department will send notice of the request for reconsideration to the employer and the employee. The department will determine if there are any valid reasons to reverse or modify the department's original decision to issue a citation and notice of assessment or determination of compliance within thirty days of receipt of such request. The department may extend this period by providing advance written notice to the employee and employer setting forth good cause for an extension of the period, and specifying the duration of the extension. After reviewing the reconsideration, the department will either:

(a) Notify the employee and the employer that the citation and notice of assessment or determination of compliance is affirmed; or

(b) Notify the employee and the employer that the citation and notice of assessment or determination of compliance has been reversed or modified.

(3) A request for reconsideration submitted to the department shall stay the effectiveness of the citation and notice of assessment or the determination of compliance pending the reconsideration decision by the department.

(4) Within thirty days after the date the department issues a citation and notice of assessment or a determination of compliance, or within thirty days after the date the department issues its decision on the request for reconsiderations, a person, firm, or corporation aggrieved by a citation and notice of assessment or a determination of compliance may file with the director a notice of appeal.

Any party who seeks to challenge an initial order shall file a petition for administrative review with the director within thirty days after service of the initial order. The director shall conduct administrative review in accordance with chapter 34.05 RCW.

(7) If a request for reconsideration is not submitted to the department within thirty days after the date of the original citation and notice of assessment or determination of compliance, and a person, firm, or corporation aggrieved by a citation and notice of assessment or determination of compliance did not submit an appeal to the director, then the citation and notice of assessment or determination of compliance is final and binding, and not subject to further appeal.

NOTICE TO ALL EMPLOYEES REGARDING ACCEPTANCE OF EMPLOYER PAYMENT

RCW 49.48.083(4) provides:

Upon payment by an employer, and acceptance by an employee, of all earnings and interest assessed by the department in a citation and notice of assessment issued to the employer, the fact of such payment by the employer, and of such acceptance by the employee, shall: (a) Constitute a full and complete satisfaction by the employer of all specific Wage Payment Act or Minimum Wage Act violations addressed in the citation and notice of assessment; and (b) bar the employee from initiating or pursuing any court action or other judicial or administrative proceeding based on the specific wage payment requirements or Minimum Wage Act violations addressed in the notification and summary of the specific requirements of this subsection.

What "full and complete satisfaction" means in RCW 49.48.083(4):

(1) The "full and complete satisfaction" provision in RCW 49.48.083(4)(a) means that if the employer pays all earnings and interest due to an employee in a Citation and Notice of Assessment and if the employee accepts this payment, the employer will not owe the employee any further amounts owed addressed in the citation. This is because the employer will have satisfied L&I's order to pay all earnings and interest owed to that employee. The "full and complete satisfaction" provision applies only to the amounts owed for the time period addressed in the Citation and Notice of Assessment.

2) The "employee barred from initiating court action" provision in RCW 49.48.083(4)(b) means that if an employee accepts the employer's payment then that employee cannot later go to court or file any other judicial or administrative action to collect the unpaid amounts owed addressed in the Citation and Notice of Assessment. This applies only to an employee who has accepted the payment of amounts owed.

(3) In summary, if you accept earnings and interest paid by your employer when the employer pays the complete amounts owed to you in the Citation and Notice of Assessments, you cannot later dispute the amount of earnings received. You also cannot later file a lawsuit against your employer to collect any more earnings for the issues and time period addressed in the Citation and Notice of Assessment.

If you have questions about the Citation(s) and Notice(s) of Assessment, please contact the Determination Specialist at (360) 902-5316 or by letter to the address above.
